Welcome to ARROW ground floor entrance parts display and a friendly greeting. Note, sign 2nd floor audio department, no air conditioning note large fan. Continued on page two window display.

Test gear and used equipment display at Arrow Electronics NYC's Radio Row. You won't find pictures such as this because of a rare forgotten subject and the fact Radio Row was demolished to make way for the World Trade Center in Manhattan by the NY Port Authority.

George Marko, thanks for the memories, you made my day! Space provided by W8JYZ Bob Green.
