

Paul H. Kangas W4LAA- Born in 1937 at Houghton Mich and a graduate of University of Michigan. He earned his brokers license after studying at New York University's Graduate School of Business.

Paul Kangas is the Miami based co-anchor and financial commentator for Public Television's Nightly Business Report and televisions leading provider of daily stock market information.

A former stockbroker with more than 12 years experience, Kangas joined Nightly Business Report when it began as a local program on Miami's public TV station WPBT in 1979.

Kangas also previously authored a syndicated weekly column in Cox Newspapers. He is a frequent speaker of seminar and convention groups.

In 2003 Kangas' signature segment, "Stocks in the News" won a Financial Writers and Editors award from the Medill School of Journalism at Northwestern University as "best broadcast feature or series useful to invenstors." The Detroit Free Press has dubbed W4LAA "the Walter Cronkite of business broadcasting" An avid golfer and ham radio enthusiast, Kangas and his wife, Peni live in Miami. Partially scripted from harrywalker.com

Our subject has been heard to say "When the golf course is wet, I can be found on 14.208 Mhz with the boys." Paul is known for his fast-paced delivery, sharp wit and encyclopedic knowledge of the financial markets. "I'm Paul Kangas wishing you the very best of Good Byes"