

WAR EMERGENCY RADIO SERVICE

A Ham-Civilian service during WW2 precursor to the Civil Defense. WERS established in June 1942 by the FCC at the insistence of the ARRL, remaining in operation through the end of the War in 1945.

With thanks to the Dusenbury family. Continued....W8SU 2007

Date of Issuance: 8-28-43

WAR EMERGENCY RADIO SERVICE OPERATOR PERMIT

This permit, when signed by the Secretary of the Commission and countersigned by the operator licensee, is valid for the duration of the war and six months thereafter, but not more than five years from date of issuance, and authorizes operation only of stations of the herein named licensee, subject to the provisions of all applicable treaties, laws, orders and regulations heretofore or hereafter enacted or promulgated.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Operator Licensee and P. O. address:

Lyle B. Dusenbury
44 Ellwood
Pontiac, Michigan

Station Licensee and P. O. address:

City of Pontiac, Michigan
East Pike Street
Pontiac, Michigan

T. J. Slowie
T. J. Slowie, Secretary.

Countersigned Lyle B. Dusenbury
Operator Licensee

