

Thomas Anthony Baugh *AE9B* Born 1 Dec 1963 in Chicago, Illinois is a former professional NFL football player. Tom was a center who played four seasons in the NFL for two good professional teams. Jersey number 58 on his Chief's QSL. His lead block at 6-3 and 274 pounds.

A 1981 graduate of Riverside Brookfield High School, Baugh attended Southern Illinois University where he was a key member of the 1983 NCAA Division 1-AA national football championship squad. Baugh was captain of the 1985 Southern Illinois Salukis and a 4th round draft pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1986.

In his NFL career, he played center for the Kansas City Chiefs of the AFC Western Division for three seasons starting in 1986. Baugh finished his professional career in 1989 with the Cleveland Browns.

Baugh resides in Lone Jack, Missouri near Kansas City and is currently active in a construction business. He is a family man, enjoys ham radio, hunting and fishing. He loves the ham radio contest competition.

On Tom's web page www.qsl.net/ae9b He stated he was indebted to SIU for the great education and experience as a young man. He taught High School from 1990-1998.

With assistance from wikipedia, qsl.net/ae9b

